

Bald Angels Charitable Trust- Ngā Anahera Pākira

kiwiMANA youth Programmes- Taitamariki Ora Coordinator

Location: Kerikeri, Bay of Islands, New Zealand (Hybrid/On-site local region travel)

Employment Type: Part-time (25-35 hours per week negotiable)

Salary: $50-70,000 Depending on Hours and Qualifications

About the Role:

Are you a passionate and culturally responsive advocate for youth well-being? Bald Angels Charitable Trust is seeking a dedicated kiwiMANA youth programmes (Taitamariki Ora) Angel to join our team in the beautiful Bay of Islands.

This vital Coordinator-Navigator role will strengthen our existing kiwiMANA Kaiārahi programme. You will be instrumental in connecting diverse and vulnerable taitamariki and their whānau to community resources, empowering them to achieve well-being and self-sufficiency.

You'll have the opportunity to co-design impactful youth programmes, support strong mentor-mentee relationships, and champion cultural values to foster holistic well-being. If you are driven by a desire to make a tangible difference in the lives of rangatahi and their whānau, we want to hear from you!

Key Responsibilities Include:

- Program Co-Design & Delivery: Develop and refine youth programs, support robust emotional toolkits, and build mentor networks.
- Navigation & Advocacy: Guide taitamariki and whānau to support networks, advocating for their needs throughout their journey.
- Relationship Building: Foster strong connections with mentors, community providers, and stakeholders.
- Cultural Responsiveness: Uphold Te Tiriti o Waitangi principles, Te Ao values, and advocate for taitamariki regardless of their background or identity.
- Monitoring & Evaluation: Track progress, identify successes and barriers, and contribute to continuous improvement.

What we're looking for:

- Qualifications and/or experience in social work, youth services, or counselling.
- A strong understanding of Te Ao Māori and a genuine commitment to integrating Te Tiriti o Waitangi principles into practice.
- Excellent communication, interpersonal, and relationship-building skills.
- Proven ability to achieve measurable outcomes and strong organisational skills.

- A proactive team player with a flexible approach and a high degree of empathy and integrity.
- Commitment to child protection and high standards of care.

Why join Bald Angels?

At Bald Angels, you'll be part of a supportive and values-driven team making a profound impact in our community. We are committed to fostering positive outcomes, building trust, and empowering rangatahi and their whānau to thrive. If you're looking for a role where your passion meets purpose, this is it!
